

The tiptony & hurst Wedding Timeline

12

months

Determine your budget

- Advanced Planning will give you a realistic sense of what to look for in a venue, dress and decor

Begin the guest list

- Knowing the number of potential guests will help in choosing a venue

Choose the wedding party

- Friends, family and your fiance's siblings are traditional choices

9

months

Select the venue

- Find a venue that suits your taste, accomodates your guests and most importantly fits your budget.

Determine your wedding colors

- Choose colors that suit the time of year and suit your personal style.

Choose the wedding vendors

- Choose and meet with the vendors. Think of everything from wedding DJ to photographer to caterer and your florist. Vendors fill up quickly, so it's important to book early.

6

months

Book the officiant

- A religious leader, family member or friend can officiate the ceremony if he/she is certified.

Send save the date invitations

- Now that you have your date chosen, it's time to let your guests know to keep that date clear.

Find your dream dress

- You want this dress to be perfect, so it may take some time. You may want to start earlier depending on how particular you are.

Choose Bridal Party dresses

- Find out if your bridesmaids have strong preferences, give them some options, but ultimately this day is all about you.

3

months

Send out Invitations

- Give guests time to RSVP and finalize travel plans.

Order the cake

- Now is the only time that you can have your cake and eat it too! Make sure to have fun during the cake tastings.

Plan the honeymoon

- You only get to do this once, so plan it out to ensure you can have the most fun!

Send your schedule to the vendors

- The more information you can give the vendors the better!

1

month

Schedule final dress fittings

- Make sure that you have time to make any last minute alterations.

Confirm Hair and Makeup

- Make sure they have ample time to pamper and primp everyone in the wedding party.

Get the marriage license

- Get multiple copies just in case

1

week

Get a haircut

- Don't do this the day before, your hair may need time to "relax" before the big day.

Pack for the honeymoon

- Pack the week before to make sure you have everything that you need on your trip.

BREATHE!

- You've planned it all out, now sit back, relax and enjoy your perfect day!
